Reef Scuba Diving Club Policies and Code of Conduct

Reef Scuba aims to be an exemplar of good practice, equity and fairness to all its members. To support this we have developed Club Policies that advise members of the standards at which we aim. These policies cover:

- Rules and Code of Conduct;
- Bullying;
- Welfare (with a particular focus on Child Protection);
- Equity; and
- Disputes.

All Club policies are available on our website, and are replicated in the Welcome Pack for new members.

Data Protection Act 1998

Reef Scuba takes the protection of your personal information seriously. We will not share your data with other organisations unless:

- It is necessary in the organisation of Club trips to dive sites in the UK or abroad;
- It is necessary to pass on medical details in the event of an incident;
- There has been a breach of the Club's Code of Conduct, Equity or Welfare Policies, and it is deemed necessary by the Club Committee to pass personal details to statutory authorities.

We will keep your data securely and it will only be accessible by Club officials.

Reef Scuba has a website covering both Dive School and Club activities. To promote the benefits of these we use photos of students and club members engaging in diving activities. For divers under the age of 18 we obtain explicit consent of parents/guardians before publication. You may also rescind your consent at any time.

Please confirm below whether you consent to the publication of personal images on the Reef Scuba website:

I do / do not give my consent for the publication of personal images on the Reef Scuba website.

In addition to posting details on our website, Reef Scuba would like to be able to contact you to let you know about dive trips, events and regular Club meetings.
